

FERRIMIN 150... A LOW COST ORAL IRON SUPPLEMENT

Comparison of Oral Iron Supplements Recommended for Dialysis Patients

- Easy on the Stomach
- Non-Binding
- Contains Stool Softener
- Small, Easy to Swallow Tablets
- Samples Available Through Your Dietitian or Nephrologist
- Medicaid Approved

Brand	Iron Source	Elemental Iron per Tablet	Cost per Bottle	Cost per Tablet	Monthly Cost at One Tablet/Day
Ferrimin 150	Ferrous Fumarate Iron Complex	150 mg	$14.00 120 tablets	12 cents	$3.50
Niferex 150	Iron Polysaccharide	150 mg	$138.75 100 tablets	$1.39	$41.70
Iberet-Folic 500	Ferrous Sulfate	105 mg	$31.69 30 tablets	$1.06	$31.68
Nephro-Fer	Ferrous Fumarate	115 mg	$11.53 30 tablets	38 cents	$11.53
Slow-Fe	Ferrous Sulfate	50 mg	$34.47 90 tablets	38 cents	$11.40
Chromagen Forte	Ferrous Fumarate	66mg	$100.00 90 tablets	$1.11	$33.33
Nephron FA	Ferrous Fumarate	66 mg	$44.25 100 tablets	44 cents	$13.28

**Pricing as reported JUNE 2008*

To order Ferrimin 150 contact:
Hillestad Pharmaceuticals USA, Inc.
Dialyvite Division
178 US HIGHWAY 51 N
Woodruff, WI 54568-9501
1-866-358-9773
www.dialyvite.net
info@dialyvite.net

Indications and Usages:
 For treatment of uncomplicated iron deficiency anemia.

Administration and Dosage:
 One tablet daily or as directed by your physician.

How Supplied:
 Each bottle contains 120 scored tablets.